Tony Abraham

Technology entrepreneur. New Yorker. A passionate home cook who learned that the best way to understand a dish is to try to recreate it the next morning.

Honestly Speaking is written from a simple conviction: that the food itself — its taste, its texture, its quiet decisions — deserves a more careful kind of attention than it usually gets. The plate, not the room. The dish, not the hype.

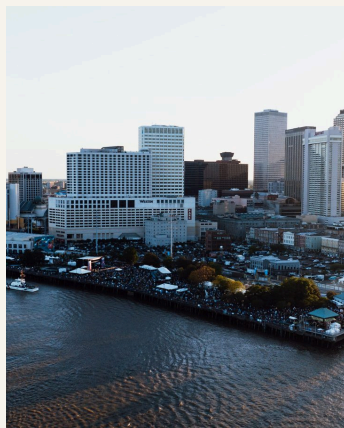

Based in New York, with field notes from all around. listede ville / New Orleans is the ninth city guide and the first of the second series — the one American city where the cheapest and the most expensive food are cooked from the same book.

First edition, Fall/Winter 2026. Houston follows.

Honestly Speaking is also a restaurant review site — independent, unsponsored, one dish at a time. The city guides tell you where; the reviews tell you what to order and why. Read them at honestlyspeaking.xyz.

For feedback — a question, a correction, a place we missed, or just to say hi — write to [hello@listede ville.com](mailto:hello@listede ville.com).

Honor Roll • 10 plates

Don't leave without these.

Ten places, ranked by nothing but the plate. A sno-ball stand from 1939, a po'boy barroom from 1918, a Senegalese tasting menu in a shotgun house and the only two-star kitchen in the South, all held to the same question: is this the best version of the thing in the city?

New Orleans is the one American city where the cheapest food and the most expensive food are both cooked from the same book. These ten are where Michelin's first Southern guide, the Beard committee and tens of thousands of Google reviews all point the same way, and where the food, not the balcony, is the reason. Room, scene and price didn't count.

How to read it The marks are the same as everywhere else in the guide. The two lines under each name are new: why it made the roll, and what to put in front of you when you get there.

Emeril's

Warehouse District; E.J. Lagasse

01

★★ JBF 2026 finalist (Emerging Chef) $$$$

Tock Amex ✓

Late night Group

At twenty-two, E.J. Lagasse rebuilt his father's flagship into a tasting menu and became the youngest chef ever to hold two stars — the only two-star kitchen in the entire American South. The New York Times gave it three stars a month before Michelin did. Creole classics, taken apart and put back together with real technique.

Order The tasting. The barbecue-shrimp tart, the gumbo and the cornbread with French butter are the courses Michelin named; the trout amandine is the one you'll remember.

Dakar NOLA

Uptown; Serigne Mbaye's Senegalese tasting

02

MR NA50 N°6 (2025)

JBF 2026 finalist (Best Chef South) $$$$ Tock

Amex ✓

Late night Group

Serigne Mbaye's seven-course Senegalese dinner in an Uptown shotgun house won the Beard award for Best New Restaurant, placed sixth in North America's 50 Best, and draws the line from Dakar to the Creole table more clearly than any restaurant in the city.

Order The tasting — one seating, communal. The jollof rice with the house Dakar spice is the course; ask for more of the spice.

Pêche Seafood Grill

03

Warehouse District

MR JBF $$$ Resy Amex ✓

Late night Group

Donald Link and Ryan Prewitt's wood-fired seafood house won the Beard award for Best New Restaurant and the plates haven't slipped since: whole Gulf fish over the coals, smoked tuna dip, oysters roasted in their shells. Loud, fast and the most reliable great meal in the city.

Order The whole grilled fish for the table, the smoked tuna dip, wood-fired oysters, and the shrimp toast. Resy, 30 days out.

Acamaya

04

Bywater; Ana Castro

Bib JBF 2026 finalist $$$ Resy Amex ✓

Late night Group

Ana Castro's Bywater mariscos room — a Bib on Michelin's first pass and a Beard finalist for Best Chef: South — cooks Mexico City seafood with Gulf fish and no distractions. Small, spare and the best new restaurant in the city.

Order The scallop crudo, the aguachile, the whole grilled fish, and whatever masa dish is on that night. The mezcal list is the right pairing.

Turkey and the Wolf

05

Irish Channel

Bib $$ Walk-in

Late night Group

Mason Hereford's sandwich shop was named the best new restaurant in America by Bon Appétit in 2017, and in 2025 Michelin gave a Bib to a place with a fried-bologna sandwich on the menu. Nostalgia rewired with a serious kitchen behind it.

Order The collard-green melt, the fried bologna sandwich, and the wedge with everything-bagel crunch. Lunch only; the line moves.

Willie Mae's NOLA

06

Tremé / Uptown; the fried chicken

Bib $ Walk-in

Late night Group

The Seaton family's fried chicken — wet-battered, shattering, seasoned all the way through — has held a Beard America's Classic since 2005 and now a Bib. Tremé is the original; the Uptown room has the same recipe and a shorter line.

Order The fried chicken, three pieces, with butter beans and the mac and cheese. Sweet tea. Nothing else on the menu needs your attention.

Domilise's Po-Boy & Bar

07

Uptown; since 1918

Bib $ Walk-in

Late night Group

A corner barroom Uptown that has fried shrimp and oysters onto Leidenheimer bread since 1918 and hasn't changed the recipe, the counter or the family. Michelin found it; the neighborhood always knew.

Order A fried shrimp po'boy, dressed, and half an oyster one to share. A Barq's from the cooler. Cash.

Parkway Bakery & Tavern

08

Mid-City; since 1911

Bib $ Walk-in

Late night Group

The roast-beef debris po'boy — slow-cooked beef collapsing into its own gravy on crackly bread — is the city's other sandwich, and this Mid-City tavern by the bayou has made the standard version since 1911. A Bib, a patio and a line that feels like a block party.

Order Roast beef, dressed, with gravy; the fried shrimp if you have a second person. Eat on the patio.

Central Grocery

09

Decatur; the muffuletta, since 1906

$ Walk-in

Late night Group

The muffuletta was invented at this Sicilian grocery in 1906 — cured meats, provolone and a marinated olive salad on a round sesame loaf — and a quarter of one is still the best three dollars a person can spend in the Quarter. Rebuilt after Ida, same recipe.

Order A half muffuletta to share, wrapped to go; eat it on the levee. It's better an hour later, when the olive oil has soaked in.

Hansen's Sno-Bliz

10

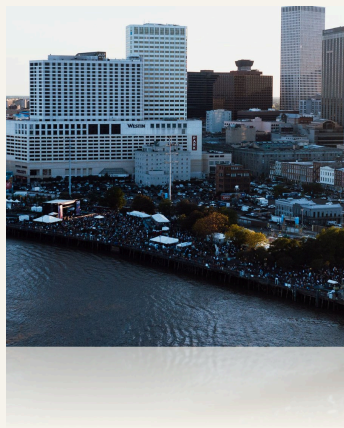

Uptown; since 1939; the machine

JBFAmerica's Classic $ Walk-in

Late night Group

Ernest Hansen built the ice-shaving machine in 1939 and his granddaughter still runs it: feathery ice, house syrups, a line down Tchoupitoulas from March to Labor Day. A Beard America's Classic, and the reason every other sno-ball stand exists.

Order Cream of nectar, or satsuma if it's on, with a squirt of condensed milk. Cash; closed in winter.

Magazine Street's Bibs, the Bywater's wine yard, and the Uptown bistros that run the city on a Tuesday.

The rooms you return to on a weeknight: Alon Shaya's Saba, Mason Hereford's Turkey and the Wolf and Hungry Eyes, Justin Devillier's La Petite Grocery, and the Bywater's Bacchanal, where a wine shop became a backyard.

Why these Picked for consistency and the neighborhood. Five of Michelin's eleven Bibs and six of its recommended rooms are on this list; Acamaya, Saint Claire and Ewiva are the 2026 Beard names.

Speakeasies & hidden bars

Behind a hotel lobby, through a gate, under a levee. Ranked, loosely, by the drink — in the city that invented the cocktail.

New Orleans invented the cocktail and never stopped drinking it. The hidden rooms are hotel salons (Bar Marilou, the Elysian Bar), courtyards (Peychaud's, Cane & Table) and neighborhood bars behind unmarked doors.

Why these Ranked by the drink. Jewel of the South is on North America's 50 Best; Cure is where the revival started in 2009; the historic bars are listed because they're still good, not because they're old.

Rooftop bars

Not a rooftop city — a courtyard and porch city. The hotel roofs first, then the yards, the levee and the beer gardens.

The city is built at sea level, so the views are hotel pools and porches — Hot Tin over St. Charles, the NOPSI's pool, the Four Seasons' river deck — and the courtyards and yards that do the same job under live oaks.

Why these Chosen for the view and the air. The beer gardens and the levee at the Fly are on because a rooftop list here would be short otherwise.

Bars

A 50 Best bar in the Quarter, the bar that started the revival on Freret, the oldest bar in the country, and the brass-band rooms.

Cocktail bars with real history (Sazerac Bar, Arnaud's French 75, Napoleon House), a new-guard scene that produced a 50 Best bar, and the music rooms where the drink is beside the point.

Why these Recognized first, then institutions, then the neighborhoods. The brass-band bars — Vaughan's, Bullet's, the Maple Leaf, Le Bon Temps — are bars on the right night and shrines the rest of the week.

Chicory and beignets since 1862, and the roasters that came after Katrina.

Chicory coffee and beignets at Café du Monde since 1862 is the ritual; the third-wave roasters — Congregation, Mammoth, French Truck, Cherry — arrived after Katrina and stayed.

Why these Selected for the cup and the room. The bakery cafés (Bywater Bakery, Levee, Ayu, La Boulangerie) are the best mornings outside the Quarter.

Michelin's first Southern guide: one two-star, two stars, eleven Bibs — plus the grand rooms since 1840 and the po'boy counters.

Michelin arrived in November 2025 and found what the city knew: E.J. Lagasse's two stars at Emeril's, Saint-Germain and Zasu with one, eleven Bibs that include po'boy shops and a fried-chicken house, and seventeen recommended rooms. Underneath, the grand houses since 1840 and the counters since 1906.

Why these Grouped by the Guide, then the Beard list, then the classics. Dakar NOLA is on North America's 50 Best; Commander's, Galatoire's, Antoine's and Arnaud's are here because they still cook, not because they're museums.

Jazz brunch is a local invention — Commander's, Arnaud's, Court of Two Sisters — and the modern version is Molly's Rise and Shine, Willa Jean's biscuits and praline bacon at Elizabeth's.

Why these Kept to places with a real kitchen at 10am. Atchafalaya's Bloody Mary bar is the one to book.

Sno-balls on a 1939 machine, a 24-hour deli, a 25-cent martini, the muffuletta's birthplace, and second lines on Sundays.

A 24-hour deli with a po'boy called All That Jazz, a sno-ball machine from 1939, a 25-cent martini lunch, the muffuletta's birthplace, and second lines every Sunday from September to June.

Why these Selected for singularity. Hansen's, Dooky Chase's and Dong Phuong are Beard America's Classics; Mosca's and Middendorf's are the drives worth making.

King cake from Twelfth Night to Fat Tuesday, doberge, pralines, and a Beard-nominated bakery in the Bywater.

King cake season runs from Twelfth Night to Mardi Gras and the city takes sides: Dong Phuong, Manny Randazzo's, Haydel's, Bywater Bakery. The rest of the year it's doberge, pralines, French pastry on Ursulines and Link's La Boulangerie.

Why these Chosen on the strength of one item each. Bywater Bakery is a 2026 Beard semifinalist for Outstanding Bakery; Lagniappe Bake House was a 2025 finalist.

Frenchmen Street, Tipitina's since 1977, Preservation Hall, and the Tuesday-and-Thursday brass-band circuit.

Frenchmen Street is the music district — the Spotted Cat, d.b.a., Snug Harbor — Tipitina's is the shrine, Preservation Hall is the church, and the brass-band circuit runs Tuesday to Thursday in the neighborhoods.

Why these Venues and clubs together. Bourbon Street's gay bars are on for history; the St. Claude rooms for what's happening now.

Itineraries · for a first-time visitor

Just follow this.

Three ready-made food itineraries — one, three and five days — built only from places on this list, so a first-time visitor can eat well without doing the research.

Each plan runs on foot and by subway, one borough a day, with a big dinner every night and a backup for every table that's hard to get. Times are suggestions; the order matters more than the clock.

How to use it Book the starred dinners the morning reservations open, then walk everything else. The gotchas on the last page cover the rest: cash, tickets, tipping, dress codes, and the Amex credit.

Itinerary · One day

One day

French Quarter to Bywater, on foot and by streetcar. Beignets at dawn, a two-star at eight.

One day, walkable in the Quarter and the Marigny; the streetcar for Uptown. Book one dinner.

Book one thing: dinner at Emeril's (Tock) — or Pêche (Resy) if it's gone.

The day

|-------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 7:30  | Café du Monde (Decatur)Beignets and a café au lait before the line forms. Walk-in, cash, 24 hours; the powdered sugar is the point.                                   |
| 9:00  | The French Quarter on footRoyal Street's galleries and Jackson Square, then Central Grocery for a quarter muffuletta to carry.                                        |
| 11:30 | Acme or Felix's (Iberville St)A dozen raw and a dozen charbroiled. Felix's has no line and the same oysters.                                                          |
| 1:30  | Frenchmen Street by dayWalk the Marigny; Baldwin & Co. for a coffee among the books, Loretta's for a praline beignet.                                                 |
| 3:30  | Bacchanal (Bywater)Pick a bottle inside, take it to the yard, order the cheese plate. Live music starts around four; Crescent Park's river view is five minutes away. |
| 5:30  | Jewel of the South (French Quarter)Chris Hannah's bar — a Brandy Crusta where it was invented. Then Napoleon House for a Pimm's Cup if there's time.                  |
| 8:00  | Emeril's (Warehouse District) or PêcheE.J. Lagasse's two-star tasting, or Link's wood-fired whole fish. Both walkable from the Quarter.                               |
| 10:30 | The Spotted Cat or d.b.a. (Frenchmen)Traditional jazz in a room the size of a living room; no cover, one-drink minimum. The Maple Leaf if it's a Tuesday.             |

Three days

The Quarter, then Uptown by streetcar, then the Bywater and Tremé. Six meals that explain the city.

Three days, one neighborhood a day. Book two dinners and one lunch. Book: Emeril's or Saint-Germain (Tock), Dakar NOLA (Tock), and Commander's Palace for the Friday or Saturday lunch (OpenTable).

Day 1 — The Quarter and the Warehouse District

- |       |                                                                                                                                 |
|-------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8:00  | Café du MondeBeignets at the source; walk them off along the Moonwalk.                                               |
| 10:00 | Sazerac House (Canal St)The free museum with a free drink at the end — the Sazerac, the Ramos, the Crusta explained. |
| 12:30 | Cochon Butcher (Warehouse District)Le Pig Mac and a muffuletta from the Bib-Gourmand butcher counter.                |
| 3:00  | Napoleon House, then the Carousel BarA Pimm's Cup in the courtyard, then one rotation of the Monteleone's bar.       |
| 6:00  | Cane &amp; TableRum drinks in the courtyard before dinner.                                                           |
| 8:00  | Emeril's or Saint-GermainThe two-star Creole tasting, or the one-star tasting in a Bywater house.                    |
| 10:30 | Preservation Hall (St. Peter St)The last set; 45 minutes, wooden benches, no drinks. Buy tickets ahead.              |

Day 2 — Uptown, by streetcar

- |       |                                                                                                                         |
|-------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 9:00  | The St. Charles streetcarRide it from Canal to Audubon Park; get off for Domilise's at Bellecastle.          |
| 11:00 | Domilise's Po-Boy &amp; BarFried shrimp, dressed, on Leidenheimer bread, since 1918. A Bib in a barroom.     |
| 1:00  | Hansen's Sno-Bliz (Tchoupitoulas)Cream of nectar on the 1939 machine. Cash; a James Beard America's Classic. |
| 3:00  | Magazine StreetWalk from Napoleon toward Jackson: Sucré, Bar Pomona, the shops.                              |
| 5:30  | Cure (Freret St)The bar that started the city's cocktail revival in 2009; happy hour until seven.            |
| 8:00  | Dakar NOLASerigne Mbaye's Senegalese tasting — №6 in North America's 50 Best, a Beard finalist. Tock.        |
| 10:30 | Tipitina's or Le Bon Temps RouléWhoever's playing; the Soul Rebels on Thursdays at Le Bon Temps.             |

Day 3 — Tremé, Mid-City and the Bywater

- |       |                                                                                                                                                              |
|-------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 9:00  | Willie Mae's (Tremé) or Lil' Dizzy'sFried chicken for breakfast is legal here; Willie Mae's opens at eleven, so Lil' Dizzy's for the early start. |
| 11:30 | Parkway Bakery &amp; Tavern (Mid-City)Roast beef debris po'boy on the patio by the bayou. Since 1911, a Bib.                                      |
| 1:00  | Angelo Brocato's (Carrollton Ave)Spumoni and a cannoli, since 1905.                                                                               |
| 2:30  | Commander's Palace (Garden District)The 25-cent martini lunch, if it's a weekday; jazz brunch on the weekend. Jackets for men.                    |
| 5:30  | Bar Redux or Vaughan's (Bywater)A neighborhood bar by the levee; Vaughan's on a Thursday for the brass band.                                      |
| 8:00  | Acamaya (Bywater)Ana Castro's Mexican mariscos — a Bib and a Beard finalist. Resy.                                                                |
| 10:00 | Bullet's Sports Bar (Seventh Ward)Kermit Ruffins if it's Tuesday; a local room any night.                                                         |

Five days

The three-day plan, plus a day across the river and out of town, and a day for the institutions.

Five days: three neighborhoods, one drive, one day of old New Orleans. Book three dinners. Add to the three-day bookings: Galatoire's Friday lunch (OpenTable, or the line at 8am), Mosquito Supper Club (Tock).

Days 1–3

- The three-day plan
As above.

Day 4 — The drive

- 9:00 Dong Phuong (New Orleans East)
Bánh mì and, in season, the king cake with the longest line in the city. A Beard America's Classic.
- 12:00 Mosca's (Westwego) or Middendorf's (Manchac)
Oysters Mosca in a roadhouse since 1946, or thin-fried catfish over the swamp. Cash at Mosca's.
- 3:00 Algiers Point
The ferry back across the river; Congregation Coffee on the Point.
- 6:00 Bar Tonique (Rampart St)
The neighborhood cocktail bar; the daily special is always the order.
- 8:00 Mosquito Supper Club (Uptown)
Melissa Martin's communal Cajun table; one seating, family style. Tock, weeks out.

Day 5 — The institutions

---

- |       |                                                                                                                                      |
|-------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8:00  | Brennan's (Royal St)Breakfast: eggs Hussarde, bananas Foster set alight at the table.                                     |
| 11:30 | Galatoire's (Bourbon St)Friday lunch — the line, the jackets, the soufflé potatoes, the crabmeat maison. Stay until four. |
| 5:00  | Arnaud's French 75 BarThe bar where Chris Hannah made his name; a French 75 in the room it was named for.                 |
| 7:30  | Antoine'sFourteen dining rooms since 1840; oysters Rockefeller invented here, baked Alaska to finish.                     |
| 10:00 | Lafitte's Blacksmith ShopCandlelight in the oldest bar in the country, then the walk back down Bourbon.                   |

Before you go.

The things New Yorkers know and visitors learn the expensive way.

Tock for the tastings, Resy for the rooms, OpenTable for the institutions.

Emeril's, Saint-Germain, Dakar NOLA, Mosquito Supper Club and the Kingsway sell tickets on Tock, often weeks out. Link, Shaya and the new guard run on Resy, 30 days out. Commander's, Galatoire's, Antoine's, Arnaud's and Brennan's are OpenTable — book Galatoire's Friday lunch or join the line on Bourbon Street at 8am.

Jackets at the old rooms.

Galatoire's after five and all day Sunday, Commander's at dinner, Arnaud's and Antoine's at night: jackets for men, no shorts anywhere. Lunch is more relaxed.

Cash at the counters.

Domilise's, Hansen's, Mosca's, Coop's, Verti Marte, the sno-ball stands and most of the Tremé bars are cash-first. Carry $60 on the po'boy day.

The streetcar is the transit and the attraction.

St. Charles for Uptown, Canal for Mid-City and the cemeteries, the Riverfront line along the Quarter. $1.25 a ride, exact change or the Le Pass app; it's slow and that's the point.

Season matters.

Crawfish from February to June; oysters best in the cold months; Casamento's closes for summer; king cake only from Twelfth Night to Mardi Gras. Late summer is hot enough that half the city's chefs go on vacation.

Frenchmen, not Bourbon.

Bourbon Street is for one drink and a look. The music is on Frenchmen Street — no cover, one-drink minimums, tip the band — and in the neighborhood bars: Maple Leaf on Tuesdays, Vaughan's and Le Bon Temps on Thursdays, Bullet's on Tuesdays.

Tipping and the go-cup.

Twenty percent is the floor; many rooms add a service charge now, so read the check. You can carry a drink out of any bar in a plastic cup — but not a glass one.

The Amex credit.

Resy runs the Platinum dining credit; Pêche, Herbsaint, Cochon, Saba, Acamaya and the Compère Lapin family all book through it. Tock and OpenTable rooms don't count.

Notes

Michelin: the inaugural American South selection, announced November 3, 2025 in Greenville, S.C. — Emeril's with two stars (E.J. Lagasse, the youngest chef ever to hold them, and the region's Young Chef award), one star each for Saint-Germain and Zasu, eleven Bib Gourmands (Acamaya, Cochon, Cochon Butcher, Domilise's, Hungry Eyes, Lufu, Mister Mao, Parkway, Saba, Turkey and the Wolf, Willie Mae's) and seventeen recommended rooms, marked MR because a first-year guide's recommended list is worth keeping.

James Beard 2026: four New Orleans finalists — Donald Link and Stephen Stryjewski (Outstanding Restaurateur), E.J. Lagasse (Emerging Chef), and Ana Castro of Acamaya and Serigne Mbaye of Dakar NOLA (Best Chef: South). Semifinalists included Saint Claire and Evviva (Best New Restaurant) and Bywater Bakery (Outstanding Bakery). Dooky Chase's, Hansen's, Dong Phuong and Willie Mae's hold America's Classics. Dakar NOLA placed №6 on North America's 50 Best Restaurants 2025; Jewel of the South is a North America's 50 Best bar — 2026 placings weren't confirmed for this edition.

Occasion chips for New Orleans are editorial assignments, by category and price. Booking platforms are listed as best known at time of printing; the Resy app is the source of truth for the Amex credit. Seasonal closures (Casamento's in summer, the snowball stands in winter, king cake outside Carnival) are noted where they matter.
