Compiled by Tony Abraham against Yelp, Google, the Los Angeles Times, Eater LA, OpenTable, Resy, Tock and the Michelin Guide. Michelin marks reflect the 2026 California selection (June 2026), the most recent at time of printing; only stars, Green Stars and Bib Gourmands are shown. Cover: the Hollywood sign from the flats, via Pexels.

Tony Abraham

Technology entrepreneur. New Yorker. A passionate home cook who learned that the best way to understand a dish is to try to recreate it the next morning.

Honestly Speaking is written from a simple conviction: that the food itself — its taste, its texture, its quiet decisions — deserves a more careful kind of attention than it usually gets. The plate, not the room. The dish, not the hype.

Based in New York, with field notes from all around. listedeville / Los Angeles is the seventh city guide — a city that is really twenty cities, where the best meal of the trip is as likely to come from a truck in Boyle Heights as from a fourteen-seat counter in West Hollywood.

First edition, Fall/Winter 2026. Seattle to follow.

Honestly Speaking is also a restaurant review site — independent, unsponsored, one dish at a time. The city guides tell you where; the reviews tell you what to order and why. Read them at honestlyspeaking.xyz.

For feedback — a question, a correction, a place we missed, or just to say hi — write to hello@listedeville.com.

Honor Roll • 10 plates

Don't leave without these.

Ten places, ranked by nothing but the plate. A shrimp-taco truck in Boyle Heights, a starred counter inside a food hall, a 24-hour Koreatown stew house and a three-star seafood room, all held to the same question: is this the best version of the thing in the city?

Los Angeles is where the Guide finally learned to give stars to food halls and Bibs to taco stands, and the city eats best where the parking is worst. These ten are where Michelin, the LA Times critics and tens of thousands of Google reviews all point the same way, and where the food, not the scene, is the reason. Room, scene and price didn't count.

How to read it The marks are the same as everywhere else in the guide. The two lines under each name are new: why it made the roll, and what to put in front of you when you get there.

Providence

01

Hollywood; Michael Cimarusti; since 2005

★★★ GS $$$$ Tock Amex ✓

Late night Group

Michael Cimarusti's seafood tasting menu has been the city's most serious kitchen for twenty years and finally holds three stars, plus a Green Star for how the fish is sourced. Restraint, technique, and a plate of California seafood that no one else here can match.

Order The tasting, with the uni and caviar supplement if it's offered. The 'ugly bunch' tuna course and the whole-fish preparations are the ones people remember.

Kato

02

Arts District; Jon Yao; promoted 2026

★★ $$$$ Tock Amex ✓

Late night Group

Jon Yao's Taiwanese-American tasting menu was promoted to two stars this year and is the most personal fine dining in the city: night-market memories reworked with Californian produce, in a minimal room off Alameda. The bar takes walk-ins for a shorter menu.

Order The tasting at the table; at the bar, the toasted honey-garlic bread and whatever the sour-cabbage fish course is that season. The guava shaved ice to finish.

Holbox

03

Historic South Central; Yucatecan seafood, Mercado La Paloma

★ $$ Resy Amex ✓

Late night Group

Gilberto Cetina's Yucatecan seafood counter inside a South Central food hall holds a Michelin star and a 4.8 on Google from three thousand people — a combination no other restaurant on any of these rolls can claim. Ceviches, aguachiles and tacos of a quality that shouldn't exist under fluorescent lights.

Order The kanpachi taco and the octopus taco, the scallop aguachile, the tuna tostada, and the caldo de mariscos if you're staying. Ask for the hot sauces — they're kept at the counter.

Osteria Mozza

04

Melrose; Nancy Silverton

★ $$$ Resy Amex ✓

Late night Group

Nancy Silverton's mozzarella bar has kept its star for over a decade by doing the same things perfectly: fresh cheeses at the counter, hand-made pasta, bread that reminds you she invented La Brea. The most consistent starred room in Los Angeles.

Order Start at the mozzarella bar — the burrata and the burricotta with spiced walnuts — then the ricotta-and-egg raviolo and the butternut-squash tortelloni. Olive-oil cake to finish.

Sonoratown

05

DTLA / Mid-City; flour tortillas

Bib new 2026 $ Walk-in

Late night Group

A Sonoran taquería downtown whose flour tortillas — thin, blistered, hand-pressed from flour brought up from Mexico — are the single best thing to eat for under five dollars in Los Angeles. New to the Bib list this year and overdue.

Order Tacos de asada and the chorizo burrito, then the chivichanga (a griddled burrito) with the braised beef. Coconut horchata.

Mariscos Jalisco

06

Boyle Heights; the shrimp taco truck

$ Walk-in

Late night Group

A truck on Olympic Boulevard that has served one dish since 2001: a fried shrimp taco, crisp shell, soft filling, drowned in salsa and avocado. Every food critic in the city has called it the best taco in Los Angeles at least once. Cash only.

Order Two tacos de camarón and the Poseidon tostada (shrimp, octopus and ceviche). The shrimp ceviche tostada if you're still hungry.

Langer's Deli

07

Westlake; the #19, since 1947

Bib $$ Walk-in

Late night Group

The pastrami argument with New York is settled here: hand-cut, steamed for hours, on double-baked rye with a crust that cracks, since 1947. The #19 — pastrami, Swiss, coleslaw, Russian dressing — is the one sandwich every Angeleno agrees on.

Order The #19 and a bowl of matzo ball soup. Purists get the pastrami plain on rye. Closes at four; go for lunch.

Anajak Thai

08

Sherman Oaks; Taco Tuesday

Bib JBF 2024 Best Chef California finalist $$$

Resy Amex ✓

Late night Group

Justin Pichetrungsri turned his family's Valley Thai restaurant into the most exciting table in the city — a Bib, a Beard finalist, a natural-wine list, and a Tuesday night when the whole menu becomes Thai-spiced tacos. The fried chicken alone justifies the drive over the hill.

Order The southern Thai fried chicken, the crab fried rice and the papaya salad any night; on Thai Taco Tuesday, the bass tacos and the fish tostada. Book the day reservations open.

Sun Nong Dan

09

Koreatown; galbi jjim, 24h

Bib

$$

Walk-in

Late night

Group

Open twenty-four hours on Western Avenue, with a line at midnight for one dish: galbi jjim, short ribs braised in a spicy sweet-soy broth with rice cakes, arriving in a cast-iron pan and, if you ask, under a torched cap of cheese. Koreatown's most beloved feast.

Order The galbi jjim, medium spicy, with the cheese, for two or more. The seolleongtang (ox-bone soup) for one, at any hour.

Pizzeria Bianco LA

10

Arts District; Chris Bianco

Bib

$$

Resy

Amex ✓

Late night

Group

Chris Bianco brought the most famous pizza oven in America from Phoenix to the Arts District, and the pies are the same — thin, blistered, dressed with restraint — with a Bib to prove Michelin noticed. Lunch, no line, is the secret.

Order The Rosa (red onion, rosemary, pistachio) and the Margherita, a bowl of the beans with burrata to start. Don't skip the gnocchi.

Cafés · 52 places

Cafés & all-day / chef's neighborhood spots

Silver Lake's wine bars, Echo Park's Bibs, Venice's all-day rooms, and the Arts District at dinner.

LA's neighborhood rooms are on the east side now: Kismet, Bacetti, Ototo, Little Fish, Quarter Sheets — five Bibs in Echo Park and Los Feliz alone — with Venice's all-day institutions and the Arts District's dining rooms.

Why these Picked for the room you'd return to on a weeknight. Thirteen Bibs are on this list; Little Fish is the 2026 addition and its chefs are Michelin's Young Chefs of the Year. Baroo is flagged: verify the current room.

*Through a fridge, behind an armoire, up a Koreatown stairwell.
Ranked, loosely, by the drink.*

LA does hidden bars as set design: through a fridge at Davey Wayne's, behind an armoire at La Descarga, up a Koreatown stairwell at R Bar. Thunderbolt in Echo Park is the one on the 50 Best.

Why these Ranked by the drink. The Varnish's rebirth behind Cole's and Clifton's reopening are flagged; the Walker Inn, Employees Only and the Edison are listed closed.

Coffee · 50 places

Coffee shops

Larchmont's roasters, Little Tokyo's mochi counters, and the bagel boom of the east side.

Go Get Em Tiger and Maru set the current standard; Intelligentsia's Silver Lake original started it; the Coffee Bean was born here in 1963; and the east side's bagel boom is the morning's news.

Why these Selected for the cup and the room. Fugetsu-Do and Mitsuru are on because Little Tokyo's mochi counters are the best sweet mornings in the city.

Twenty-five Michelin stars, forty-one Bibs, the San Gabriel Valley, Koreatown after midnight, and the trucks that outrank the tasting rooms.

Twenty-five stars in the 2026 selection — Somni and Providence at three, Kato promoted to two, five new one-stars — and forty-one Bibs. Around them: the San Gabriel Valley, Koreatown at 2am, Thai Town, Boyle Heights, and the trucks that outrank the tasting rooms.

Why these Grouped by distinction, then the new guard, then the classics and the neighborhoods. Holbox, a star in a food hall, is the most LA entry on the list. The Bibs and the SGV block are where to read slowly.

A star in a food hall, a taco truck with a line at 1am, and a giant doughnut in Inglewood.

A Michelin star inside a food hall, a shrimp-taco truck with a line at 1am, two French dips since 1908, a giant doughnut in Inglewood, and a Googie coffee shop that hasn't changed since 1958.

Why these Selected for singularity. Vespertine is here for the building; Anajak's Taco Tuesday for being the most-argued-about meal in the Valley.

For after — or instead of — dinner.

Mashti Malone's saffron ice cream, Fosselman's since 1919, Diddy Riese's $3 sandwich, Sprinkles' original cupcake, and the finales at Somni and n/naka.

Why these A mix of the destination and the institution. Half of this list is Persian, Korean or Japanese, because that's where LA's sweet tooth lives.

Notable mentions

Where the room is the point: the Strip, the Bungalows, the Arts District's dining rooms, and the counters that are theater.

Where the room is the point: Spago, Craig's and the Ivy; the Strip's hotel bars; the Arts District's dining rooms; and the counters where the tasting is theater.

Why these The Strip and Beverly Hills lead; the members' clubs are on because everyone will ask; the starred rooms are here for the show as much as the food.

Hollywood's big rooms, the Strip's rock clubs, and the Bowl in summer.

Hollywood's big rooms, the Strip's rock clubs since the 1960s, the Echo and Zebulon on the east side, and the Bowl and the Greek in summer.

Why these Venues and clubs together. The Troubadour, Whisky and Roxy are on for history; the Baked Potato for jazz since 1970; the Hollywood Bowl because a picnic there is the best night in the city.

Itineraries · for a first-time visitor

Just follow this.

Three ready-made food itineraries — one, three and five days — built only from places on this list, so a first-time visitor can eat well without doing the research.

Each plan runs on foot and by subway, one borough a day, with a big dinner every night and a backup for every table that's hard to get. Times are suggestions; the order matters more than the clock.

How to use it Book the starred dinners the morning reservations open, then walk everything else. The gotchas on the last page cover the rest: cash, tickets, tipping, dress codes, and the Amex credit.

Itinerary · One day

One day

East side to Downtown. A truck at noon, a Bib at eight, Koreatown after midnight.

One day, one car. LA is a driving city; plan by neighborhood, not by list. Book one dinner. Book one thing: dinner at Kismet (Resy) or Bestia (Resy).

The day

- | | |
|-------|---|
| 8:30 | Go Get Em Tiger (Larchmont)
The coffee that set LA's standard, and a breakfast burrito. Walk-in. |
| 10:00 | République (La Brea)
The pastry case, for the road — or sit, for the eggs. Walk-in; the line moves. |
| 12:00 | Mariscos Jalisco (Boyle Heights)
The shrimp taco truck: crispy, dorado, with avocado and salsa, from a window on Olympic. Cash. The best $4 in the city. |
| 1:30 | Grand Central Market (DTLA)
Sarita's for a pupusa, Villa Moreliana for carnitas, Eggslut if you must. Then Philippe's ten minutes north for the French dip since 1908 — or Cole's, and pick a side. |
| 3:30 | The Arts District
Bread Lounge, Hauser & Wirth, a look at the Row where Kato lives. Then Everson Royce Bar for the burger and the patio. |
| 6:00 | Thunderbolt (Echo Park)
LA's 50 Best bar. Walk-in early; the patio is the seat. |
| 8:00 | Kismet (Los Feliz) or Bestia (Arts District)
Kismet for Sara Kramer and Sarah Hymanson's Middle Eastern (Bib, Resy); Bestia for the room that started the Arts District (Resy, 30 days). Backup: Pine & Crane (Bib, walk-in) or Little Fish (Bib, the new one). |
| 10:30 | Koreatown
Dan Sung Sa for the pojangmacha, then Sun Nong Dan for galbi jjim at 1am (Bib, 24 hours). Or Tiki-Ti in Los Feliz, cash, since 1961. |

Three days

The east side, then the west, then the San Gabriel Valley. One freeway a day.

A long weekend. Day one is the one-day plan; day two is Hollywood to the ocean; day three goes east to the SGV. Book three dinners the day reservations open: Kismet or Bestia, Providence or n/naka, and Bistro Na's.

Day 1 · East

All day Follow the one-day plan
Larchmont, République, Mariscos Jalisco, Grand Central Market, the Arts District, Thunderbolt, Kismet, Koreatown.

Day 2 · Hollywood to the ocean

9:00 Sqirl (Virgil Village)
The ricotta toast and the sorrel pesto rice bowl. Walk-in; the line is the ritual.

11:00 Musso & Frank (Hollywood)
A martini at the bar since 1919 — they open at 11. Then the sign from the flats, and Yamashiro's terrace for the view if it's clear.

1:00 Sonoratown (Mid-City)
Flour tortillas from Sonora, mesquite carne asada — a 2026 Bib. Walk-in.

3:00 Venice
Gjusta's deli counter, the canals, Abbot Kinney. Menotti's for an espresso.

5:30 The Bungalow (Santa Monica)
One drink at the Fairmont's bungalow at golden hour, the pier below. Or Chez Jay next door, since 1959.

7:30 Providence (Hollywood) ★★★ or n/naka (Palms) ★★
Providence for Michael Cimarusti's seafood — the first three-star in the city (Tock); n/naka for Niki Nakayama's kaiseki (Tock, weeks out). Backup: Felix (Venice; Resy) or Pasjoli ★ (Santa Monica; Tock).

10:30 The Roger Room (West Hollywood)
No sign, the tarot mural. Or Bar Lis on the Thompson's roof.

Day 3 • The San Gabriel Valley

10:00 Sea Harbour (Rosemead)

Dim sum from the carts — the best in the country. Walk-in; arrive before 10:30 or wait an hour. Lunasia in Alhambra if the wait is too long.

12:30 Alhambra & San Gabriel

Hui Tou Xiang for pan-fried dumplings (Bib), Chengdu Taste for the Sichuan, Yang's Kitchen if you'd rather sit (Bib).

2:30 Fosselman's (Alhambra)

Ice cream since 1919. Then Din Tai Fung in Arcadia, the American original, if you're still standing.

4:30 Little Tokyo

Back west: Fugetsu-Do for mochi since 1903, Mitsuru for imagawayaki, a look at the Japanese American National Museum.

7:00 Bistro Na's (Temple City) ★

Imperial Chinese with a star in a strip mall — the most SGV restaurant on the list. Resy. Backup: Newport Seafood (the lobster; walk-in) or Hayato ★★ in the Arts District (Tock) if you want the counter.

9:30 The Prince (Koreatown)

Fried chicken and the Chinatown film set. Then Break Room 86 through the back of the Line if you want to dance.

Five days

The three-day plan, plus the Valley and Thai Town, and a day for the counters and the coast.

Enough time to eat like a resident: Thai Town at 2am, the Valley's delis, Malibu's picnic tables, and the counters that need weeks. Set alarms for Somni or Providence, Kato (Tock), and Anajak's Taco Tuesday.

Days 1–3

All Follow the three-day plan
East, Hollywood to the ocean, the SGV.

Day 4 · The Valley & Thai Town

- | | |
|-------|--|
| 9:00 | Porto's (Burbank)
Potato balls, guava strudel, the line. Cash-friendly, walk-in. |
| 10:30 | Bob's Big Boy (Burbank)
The 1949 original; Friday night is classic-car night. Then the Warner lot or Universal if you must. |
| 1:00 | Anajak Thai (Sherman Oaks)
If it's Tuesday: Taco Tuesday, the most-argued-about meal in the Valley (Resy). Otherwise the regular menu, still a Bib and a Beard finalist. |
| 3:30 | Thai Town
Sapp Coffee Shop for boat noodles, Bhan Kanom Thai for sweets, Ruen Pair for the papaya salad (Bib). |
| 6:00 | Tabula Rasa (Thai Town)
Natural wine and a listening bar's calm. Then Harvard & Stone next door. |
| 8:00 | Jitlada (Thai Town)
Southern Thai, spice you'll remember. Walk-in, or Resy. Then Sanamluang across the street at 2am if you're still going. |

Day 5 • The coast, and the counter

- | | |
|-------|--|
| 10:00 | Malibu
Malibu Seafood's picnic tables, or Neptune's Net with the bikers. Cash-friendly. |
| 1:00 | Nobu Malibu
Lunch on the deck if you can get it (OpenTable); Malibu Farm on the pier if you can't. |
| 4:00 | Harriet's Rooftop (1 Hotel West Hollywood) or Bar Lis (Thompson Hollywood)
One drink at golden hour. |
| 6:00 | Death & Co LA (Arts District)
The New York bar's LA room. Resy. |
| 8:00 | Somni ★★★ or Kato ★★
Somni for Aitor Zabala's fourteen seats in West Hollywood (Tock; the hardest ticket in the city); Kato for Jon Yao's Taiwanese counter, promoted in June (Tock). Alternative: Hayato ★★ (Tock) or Corridor 109 ★, the new one (Tock). |
| 11:00 | Jumbo's Clown Room (Los Feliz)
Cash at the door. Or Canter's, 24 hours since 1931, for a pastrami on the way home. |

Before you go.

The things New Yorkers know and visitors learn the expensive way.

You need a car. Plan by neighborhood.

LA is not walkable between neighborhoods and the 405 is not a joke. Group each day by area — east side, the SGV, the westside — and never cross the city at 5pm. Rideshares are reliable; budget $30–50 a hop after dark. Metro's B and D lines link Downtown, Koreatown and Hollywood usefully.

Tock for the counters, SevenRooms for the scene.

Somni, Providence, n/naka, Kato, Hayato and most omakase counters sell tickets on Tock, often weeks out and prepaid. West Hollywood's scene restaurants (Delilah, Catch, the Nice Guy) book on SevenRooms and hold tables for the house. Resy runs the neighborhood rooms, 30 days out.

Cash at the trucks and the counters.

Mariscos Jalisco, Leo's, the Tire Shop, Tiki-Ti, Jumbo's and most of Boyle Heights and Thai Town are cash-only or cash-first. Carry $80 on the east-side day.

Tip 20%; watch the surcharges.

Many LA restaurants add a 3–5% 'wellness' or service fee to the bill — legal if disclosed, not the tip. Sales tax on meals is 9.5–10.25% depending on the city you're standing in. Read the check.

Koreatown runs late; everything else doesn't.

Sun Nong Dan, Sanamluang, Canter's and California Donuts are 24 hours; most of the city's kitchens close at 10. Last call is 2am statewide — no exceptions.

Monday is dark, and so is much of Sunday.

Somni, Providence, n/naka, Hayato and most chef rooms close Sunday and Monday. The trucks, Koreatown, the SGV and the diners run seven days.

The French dip has two birthplaces.

Philippe's and Cole's both opened in 1908 and both claim it. Philippe's is sawdust floors and 10-cent coffee; Cole's has a bar (and, maybe, the Varnish behind it). Try both; don't take a side out loud.

The SGV is a different city.

Alhambra, San Gabriel, Rosemead, Arcadia and Temple City are 20 minutes east and have the best Chinese food in America. Go for lunch — the dim sum lines start at 10am — and bring a car with parking patience.

Use the Amex credit like a local.

Platinum $100 per quarter, Gold $50 twice a year, at any Resy or Tock venue showing the 'Resy Credit eligible' badge. A prepaid Tock ticket at n/naka is the easiest use of it.

Anything marked verify, verify.

LA lost the Original Pantry, Nightshade, Employees Only, the Walker Inn and Sweet Lady Jane within two years; three restaurants lost stars in June. A minute on Resy or Google before you get on the freeway.

The taco vocabulary.

Al pastor: off the spinning trompo (Leo's). Tijuana-style: on a mesquite grill with guacamole (Tire Shop). Sonoran: flour tortillas, carne asada (Sonoratown). Dorado: fried shell, shrimp inside (Mariscos Jalisco). Order two of each; it's still under $20.

One for the road.

LAX has a Sam First jazz club across the street and, in Terminal 2, an Eggslut. Burbank's terminal is a ten-minute drive from Porto's — buy a box.

Notes

Michelin: the 2026 California selection, announced June 24, 2026 in San Diego. Los Angeles holds twenty-five stars — Somni and Providence at three (the city's first, awarded in 2025); Kato promoted to two beside n/naka, Hayato and Mélisse; five new one-stars in Corridor 109, Kojima, Lielle, Miura and Seline — while 715, Camphor and Morihiro (after its move to Echo Park) lost theirs. Forty-one Bib Gourmands, with Little Fish and Sonoratown added; Little Fish's chefs were named Michelin's Young Chefs of the Year. Providence holds a Green Star.

Bars: Thunderbolt in Echo Park is LA's North America's 50 Best regular and a James Beard Outstanding Bar finalist. The Varnish's rebirth behind Cole's and Clifton's reopening are flagged to verify.

Occasion chips for Los Angeles are editorial assignments, by category and price. Tock runs the omakase counters and the three-stars; Resy the rest; the scene restaurants of West Hollywood book on SevenRooms. The Amex credit works at Resy and Tock.
