Compiled by Tony Abraham against Yelp, Google, Miami New Times, Eater Miami, OpenTable, Resy and the Michelin Guide. Michelin marks reflect the 2026 Florida selection (May 2026), the most recent at time of printing; only stars, Green Stars and Bib Gourmands are shown. Cover: Brickell from across Biscayne Bay, via Pexels.

Tony Abraham

Technology entrepreneur. New Yorker. A passionate home cook who learned that the best way to understand a dish is to try to recreate it the next morning.

Honestly Speaking is written from a simple conviction: that the food itself — its taste, its texture, its quiet decisions — deserves a more careful kind of attention than it usually gets. The plate, not the room. The dish, not the hype.

Based in New York, with field notes from all around. listede ville / Miami is the fourth city guide — a city where the ventanita and the two-star tasting room are a ten-minute drive apart, and both belong on the list.

First edition, Fall/Winter 2026. Chicago, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Seattle to follow.

Honestly Speaking is also a restaurant review site — independent, unsponsored, one dish at a time. The city guides tell you where; the reviews tell you what to order and why. Read them at honestlyspeaking.xyz.

For feedback — a question, a correction, a place we missed, or just to say hi — write to hello@listede ville.com.

Honor Roll • 10 plates

Don't leave without these.

Ten places, ranked by nothing but the plate. A cafecito window, a croqueta counter, a stone-crab house from 1913 and three starred kitchens, all held to the same question: is this the best version of the thing in the city?

Miami's best food is Cuban, Peruvian, Vietnamese and Mexican before it is anything else, and the Guide has finally caught up — three Bibs on this roll cost under $30 a head. These ten are where Michelin, the local critics and tens of thousands of Google reviews all point the same way, and where the food, not the scene, is the reason. Room, scene and price didn't count.

How to read it The marks are the same as everywhere else in the guide. The two lines under each name are new: why it made the roll, and what to put in front of you when you get there.

Los Félix

01

Coconut Grove

★ GS $$$ Resy Amex ✓

Late night Group

Heirloom corn nixtamalized in-house, a star and a Green Star, and the best Mexican cooking in Florida in a tiny Coconut Grove room. The masa is the point: the tortillas, the arepa, the pancake all taste of it.

Order Tacos al pastor and the beef-cheek carnitas, the tuna crudo in aguachile, and the sweet-corn arepa. The salsas are the reason to order the chips.

Ariete

02

Coconut Grove; Michael Beltran

★ $$$ Resy Amex ✓

Late night Group

Michael Beltran cooks Miami Cuban through French technique — foie gras with guava, agnolotti stuffed with goat, a fabada with real depth — and the star is for the plates, not the room. The most Miami restaurant with a Michelin star.

Order The Versos Sencillos tasting if you have the evening; à la carte, the foie gras, the fabada and the chivo agnolotti, then anything with Homestead guava for dessert.

Hidden

03

Wynwood; omakase behind a door

★ $$$$ Tock Amex ✓

Late night Group

Eight seats behind an unmarked door beside a taco stand, fish flown in from Japan several times a week, a star every year since the Florida guide began. The hardest reservation in the city and the one omakase here that doesn't rely on theatre.

Order The omakase — there's nothing else. Book the moment Tock opens and don't be late; the door only opens for your seating.

Sanguich de Miami

06

Little Havana; Cuban sandwiches

Bib $ Resy Amex ✓

Late night Group

The Cuban sandwich that made Michelin notice a Calle Ocho counter: pork roasted in-house, ham cured in-house, pickles and mustard made in-house, bread pressed to shatter. The croquetas alone would earn the Bib.

Order The Cubano, the croquetas, and a cortadito. If there's a second person, the pan con bistec. Closes at six; go for lunch.

Tâm Tâm

04

Downtown; Vietnamese

Bib $$ Resy Amex ✓

Late night Group

Tam Pham's downtown Vietnamese room won Michelin's Young Chef award and a Bib in the same year, and the plates explain why: glass-crisp chicken wings, a scallop crudo built on herbs instead of lime, tiger prawns that people order twice.

Order The chicken wings, the scallop crudo, the beef tartare and the grilled tiger prawns; the lotus salad to cut through it. Thai-tea tres leches to finish.

Joe's Stone Crab

07

South of Fifth; since 1913; season Oct–May

$$$$ Resy Amex ✓

Late night Group

The one Miami institution that deserves its line. Stone crab claws, cracked and chilled, with mustard sauce — a dish invented at this address in 1921 — and sides that haven't changed since. Season runs October to May; the rest of the year, skip it.

Order Large claws with the mustard sauce, hash browns, creamed spinach and grilled tomatoes; key lime pie. The take-away counter next door has no wait.

Mandolin Aegean Bistro

05

Buena Vista; the garden

Bib $$$ Resy Amex ✓

Late night Group

A blue-and-white courtyard in Buena Vista serving Greek and Turkish village food without a gimmick in sight: grilled fish, real meze, bread from the oven. Fifteen years on it is still the table Miamians take visitors to.

Order The meze spread — tzatziki, taramasalata, the grilled halloumi — then a whole grilled branzino for the table and the lamb kebab. Sangria in the garden.

Versailles ventanita

Little Havana; the cafecito window

$ Walk-in

Late night Group

The walk-up coffee window of Miami's most famous Cuban restaurant, where exile politics, dominoes and the day's news get settled over thimbles of sweet espresso. The restaurant inside is fine; the window is essential.

Order A cafecito (or a colada to share), a guava-and-cheese pastelito and a croqueta from the bakery counter. At 3:05pm the whole city stops for one — join it.

Islas Canarias

09

Westchester; croquetas

$ Walk-in

Late night

Group

Way out on SW 26th Street, the croqueta that Miami measures every other croqueta against — creamy ham inside, crisp shell, sold by the dozen from a drive-through with a line. The restaurant is a proper Cuban diner; the croqueta is the reason it's here.

Order A dozen ham croquetas to go, or the croqueta preparada — croquetas pressed into a Cuban sandwich — if you're eating in. The crema catalana if you sit down.

El Palacio de los Jugos

multiple

$ Walk-in

Late night

Group

A Cuban market and juice stand that became a cafeteria empire: whole roast pork chopped to order, chicharrón, plantains, and fresh sugarcane juice pressed while you wait. The Flagler original is loud, cash-friendly and one of the best cheap meals in America.

Order Lechón with yuca and moros, a bag of chicharrones, a guarapo (sugarcane juice) or a mamey shake. Point at what's in the steam trays; it's all good.

Cafés · 52 places

Cafés & all-day / chef's neighborhood spots

Coconut Grove's chef rooms, Little River's wine bars, and the all-day cafés between the beach and the bay.

Miami's neighborhood rooms are in the Grove, Little River and the Upper East Side more than the Beach: Krüs, Chug's, Boia De, La Natural, Phuc Yea. The Bibs cluster here.

Why these Picked for the room you'd return to on a weeknight. Eleven of Miami's eighteen Bibs are on this list, plus Los Félix and Ariete with stars. Itamae AO is flagged: its 2025 star wasn't in the 2026 list at press time.

Speakeasies · 50 places

Speakeasies & hidden bars

Behind a porta-potty door, up a food-hall mezzanine, inside a listening room. Ranked, loosely, by the drink.

Miami hides its best bars in plain sight — Bar Kaiju on a food-hall mezzanine, ViceVersa behind a downtown door, Bodega's behind a porta-potty. The rest are the hotel bars and the Little Havana stages.

Why these Ranked by the drink. ViceVersa (Nº46) and Bar Kaiju (Nº70) are on the 50 Best; Dante's HiFi is the listening bar; Café La Trova is here because the cantinero show is theater. The closed ones are listed so you know.

Two on the 50 Best, the cantinero's stage in Little Havana, and the dives since 1926.

Julio Cabrera's Café La Trova is the soul of the scene; Sweet Liberty and Broken Shaker built the modern one; the dives — Mac's Club Deuce, Ted's, Churchill's — are the counterweight.

Why these Ranked and recognized first, then institutions, hotel bars, dives, wine, beer. New Times' Top 50 Bars 2026 is the local cross-check.

Coffee · 51 places

Coffee shops

Cafecito windows, Wynwood roasters, and the Cuban bakeries where Miami actually starts its day.

Miami runs on cafecito. The ventanitas at Versailles and La Carreta, the 3:05pm colada, and then the third-wave roasters of Wynwood and Little River.

Why these Selected for the cup and the ritual. Panther is the roaster; Pasión del Cielo the Cuban-style chain worth the stop; the ventanitas are where you'll understand the city.

Fourteen Michelin stars, eighteen Bibs, a Thomas Keller in Surfside, and the Cuban, Haitian and Peruvian kitchens you won't find better outside their home countries.

The 2026 Florida guide gave Miami fourteen stars — L'Atelier the only two-star in the state — and eighteen Bibs. Around them: the Design District's dining rooms, Brickell's scene, and the Cuban, Haitian and Peruvian kitchens that are the actual city.

Why these Grouped by distinction, then the new guard, then the classics. Joe's Stone Crab is seasonal (October–May); Versailles is a civic institution. The Bibs and the Little Havana block are where to read slowly.

Sunday in the Grove, on the river, and at the ventanita.

Sunday means the Grove, the river, or a Cuban breakfast at a ventanita. The Beach's hotel brunches are the spectacle; the neighborhood ones are the food.

Why these Kept to places that consistently top Resy and OpenTable's weekend demand plus the counters you walk into. Nine Bibs and two starred rooms do brunch here.

Fritas, croquetas, batidos, stone crabs to go, and a fruit stand on the way to the Keys.

Fritas, croquetas, batidos, a 24-hour Nicaraguan fritanga, stone crabs from the takeout window, and a fruit stand on the road to the Keys.

Why these Selected for singularity — things that could only be here. Robert Is Here, Alabama Jack's and Knaus Berry Farm justify the drive south; the Little Havana counters justify everything else.

For after — or instead of — dinner.

Azucar's Abuela Maria, the batido, the flan at Versailles, and a two-star mignardise cart in the Design District.

Where the room is the point: Brickell's fish tanks, Design District's dining rooms, and the Faena.

Where the room is the point: the fish tanks of Brickell, the Design District's dining rooms, the Faena's theater, and Joe's since 1913.

Why these Brickell and the Beach lead; the Design District's starred rooms are here for the scene as much as the food. Soho Beach House is on because everyone will ask.

Itineraries · for a first-time visitor

Just follow this.

Three ready-made food itineraries — one, three and five days — built only from places on this list, so a first-time visitor can eat well without doing the research.

Each plan runs on foot and by subway, one borough a day, with a big dinner every night and a backup for every table that's hard to get. Times are suggestions; the order matters more than the clock.

How to use it Book the starred dinners the morning reservations open, then walk everything else. The gotchas on the last page cover the rest: cash, tickets, tipping, dress codes, and the Amex credit.

Itinerary · One day

One day

Little Havana to the Design District. Cafecito at 3:05, a two-star at eight.

One day, one car (or a lot of rideshares — Miami is not a walking city). Book one dinner. Book one thing: dinner at Boia De (Resy) or L'Atelier (Tock).

The day

- | | |
|-------|--|
| 8:30 | Versailles ventanita (Little Havana)
A cafecito and a pastelito de guayaba at the window. Cash is fastest; stand with the regulars. |
| 10:00 | Calle Ocho
Domino Park, the cigar rollers, Los Pinareños for a batido. Sanguich for an early Cubano — a Bib, and the best sandwich in the city. |
| 12:30 | Zak the Baker (Wynwood)
The challah, a babka, and the murals of Wynwood Walls after. Walk-in. |
| 2:30 | Panther Coffee (Wynwood)
The roaster that started Miami's coffee scene. Then a look inside Hiden's unmarked door — you'll need Tock to get further. |
| 4:30 | Bar Kaiju (Little River)
Up the stairs at The Citadel — 50 Best Nº70. Then Dante's HiFi if you'd rather listen than talk. |
| 6:00 | Sugar (EAST, Brickell)
One drink forty floors up; the sunset over the bay is the point. Resy; go early. |
| 8:00 | Boia De (Little Haiti) ★ or L'Atelier de Joël Robuchon (Design District) ★★
Boia De for the counter and the pasta (Resy, 30 days; hardest table in the city); L'Atelier for the only two-star in Florida (Tock). Backup: Ariete ★ (Coconut Grove, Resy) or Mandolin (the garden, Bib, Resy). |
| 10:30 | Café La Trova (Little Havana)
Julio Cabrera's cantineros dancing behind the bar, a rumba band, a daiquiri. 50 Best Nº42. Walk-in; the room is loud and that's the idea. |

Three days

The mainland, then the Beach, then the Grove and the river. One shoreline a day.

A long weekend. Day one is the one-day plan; day two is South Beach done properly; day three is the water. Book three dinners the day reservations open: Boia De, Stubborn Seed, and the Surf Club or Ariete.

Day 1 · The mainland

All day Follow the one-day plan
Versailles, Calle Ocho, Zak, Wynwood, Bar Kaiju, Sugar, Boia De, La Trova.

Day 2 · The Beach

9:00 La Sandwicherie (South Beach)
The French sandwich shop since 1988, for breakfast on the alley. Then the beach, before it's hot.

12:00 Joe's Take Away (South of Fifth)
Stone crabs from the counter, no line, eaten on the sea wall. October–May only; the rest of the year, Lucali (Bib, Sunset Harbour) for pizza.

2:00 Sweet Liberty (South Beach)
Naren Young's bar, for a daiquiri and the happy-hour oysters. Walk-in.

4:00 Broken Shaker (Freehand, Mid-Beach)
The original, by the pool. Then the Faena for a look at the gold mammoth.

6:00 Champagne Bar at the Surf Club (Surfside)
The most beautiful room in Miami, for one glass. Walk-in early.

7:30 Stubborn Seed (South Beach) ★
Jeremy Ford's tasting menu, Green Star for the farm (Resy, 30 days). Backup: The Surf Club Restaurant ★ (Thomas Keller, Surfside, Resy) or Macchialina (Italian, easier, Resy).

10:30 Mac's Club Deuce (South Beach)
The 1926 dive. Cash. Then Do Not Sit On The Furniture if you want to dance.

Day 3 • The Grove & the river

9:30 Chug's Diner (Coconut Grove)

Cuban-American breakfast — a Bib. Then the Grove's banyans and Vizcaya.

12:30 Los Félix (Coconut Grove) ★

Masa from heritage corn, a star and a Green Star, and lunch is the easy seat. Resy.

3:00 Krüs Kitchen (Coconut Grove)

A glass of something natural in the courtyard — Green Star.

5:00 Garcia's (Miami River)

Oysters and a beer on the dock, from the boats tied up beside you. Walk-in.

7:00 Kiki on the River (Miami River)

Greek, on the water, the scene. SevenRooms. Or Seaspice next door.

9:30 Ball & Chain (Little Havana)

Live music on the Pineapple stage, a mojito, the end of the night.

Five days

The three-day plan, plus the drive south and one day for the counters.

Enough time to leave the city — the Redland, Card Sound Road, a fruit stand — and to eat at the counters that need a reservation. Set alarms for Boia De, Stubborn Seed, Ogawa or Hiden (Tock), and Cote.

Days 1–3

All Follow the three-day plan
The mainland, the Beach, the Grove and the river.

Day 4 · South

- | | |
|-------|--|
| 9:00 | Knaus Berry Farm (Homestead)
The cinnamon rolls; the line is the ritual. November–April only. Otherwise Robert Is Here, the fruit stand, for a key lime milkshake. |
| 11:00 | Redland
Schnebly's for a mango wine, the Fruit & Spice Park, El Toro Taco for lunch. |
| 2:00 | Alabama Jack's (Card Sound Road)
Conch fritters and a beer on the water, halfway to Key Largo. Cash. Turn around here or keep driving. |
| 6:30 | Shorty's BBQ (South Miami)
Since 1951, on the way back. Walk-in. |
| 8:30 | Hometown Barbecue Miami (Allapattah)
Or, if Shorty's was lunch: the Brooklyn pitmaster's Miami room — a Bib. Then Las Rosas across the street. |

Day 5 • The counters, and Sunday

10:30 Sadelle's (Coconut Grove) or Pastis (Wynwood)

The New York brunches, transplanted. Resy.

1:00 1-800-Lucky (Wynwood)

The Asian food hall for a light lunch, then the galleries.

4:00 Astra (Wynwood)

The rooftop, one drink. Resy.

6:00 ViceVersa (Downtown)

50 Best №46, aperitivo hour. Resy.

8:00 Ogawa ★ or Hiden ★

Ogawa in Little River, Hiden behind the door in Wynwood — both omakase, both Tock, both weeks out.
Alternative: Cote Miami ★ (Design District; Resy) for the Korean steakhouse theater.

11:00 Club Space (Downtown)

If it's the weekend: the terrace, and the sunrise. Otherwise E11even, which never closes.

Before you go.

The things New Yorkers know and visitors learn the expensive way.

You need a car, or a rideshare budget.

Miami is not walkable between neighborhoods. Brickell, Wynwood, the Beach and the Grove are 20–40 minutes apart in traffic. The Metromover is free downtown; the Metrorail reaches the Grove and Dadeland. Budget $25–40 a hop after dark.

Reservations, and the Tock counters.

Resy rooms release 30 days out; the omakase counters (Hiden, Ogawa, Shingo, Naoe, L'Atelier) are on Tock in blocks. Boia De is the hardest table in the city — set Notify. Brickell's scene restaurants (Gekko, Sexy Fish, Komodo) book on SevenRooms.

Stone crab is seasonal.

Mid-October to early May. Joe's is closed for the rest of the year; the takeout window skips the line. Claws are priced by size and the large ones are $100+ a plate.

Cash at the ventanitas.

Versailles, La Carreta, Pinareños, the fritas counters and most of Hialeah move faster in cash. The 3:05pm cafecito (305, the area code) is a real thing.

Tip 20%; check for the automatic gratuity.

Miami Beach restaurants routinely add 18–20% service to the bill — it's the law that it be disclosed, and tourists routinely tip on top of it. Read the check. Sales tax on meals is 7%, 9% on the Beach with resort fees.

Dress codes are real, and so are the doormen.

LIV, E11even, Papi Steak, Sexy Fish and the Faena enforce them. Collared shirts and closed shoes for men; no flip-flops after dark anywhere that matters. Café La Trova and Ball & Chain don't care.

Season runs November to April.

Art Basel week (early December) and Ultra (March) double the prices and halve the availability. Summer is hot, wet and cheaper; hurricane season is June–November and rooftops close in storms.

Monday is dark, Sunday is brunch.

Boia De, Stubborn Seed, Ogawa and most chef rooms close Monday and often Tuesday. The Cuban places run seven days, 24 hours in some cases.

Use the Amex credit like a local.

Platinum $100 per quarter, Gold $50 twice a year, at any Resy or Tock venue showing the 'Resy Credit eligible' badge — no booking through Resy required.

Anything marked verify, verify.

Miami's scene turns over faster than any other city in this series — Story, Treehouse, Alter, Beaker & Gray, Employees Only all closed within two years. A minute on Resy or Google before you drive across the causeway.

The Cuban vocabulary.

Cafecito: a shot of sweet espresso. Colada: a large cafecito with tiny cups, meant to share. Cortadito: with a splash of milk. Frita: a Cuban burger with shoestring potatoes. Croqueta: order two. Pastelito: guava and cheese is the correct one.

One for the road.

MIA has a Versailles in Terminal D and a Café La Carreta in D too; a colada at the gate is the right way to leave.

Notes

Michelin: the 2026 Florida selection, announced May 28, 2026 — the first to cover the entire state. Miami holds fourteen stars (L'Atelier de Joël Robuchon the only two-star in Florida for a fifth year; Mutra in North Miami the new one-star, the first kosher restaurant in the world with a star), three Green Stars (Krüs Kitchen, Los Félix, Stubborn Seed) and eighteen Bib Gourmands, with Barra Callao, Cotoa, Double Luck and To Be Determined added this year. Itamae AO's 2025 star was not in the 2026 list at press time and is flagged to verify.

Bars: North America's 50 Best Bars 2026 (April 22, 2026) — Café La Trova Nº42, ViceVersa Nº46, Bar Kaiju Nº70 on the extended list. ViceVersa was a 2025 James Beard Best New Bar finalist; Café La Trova has been nominated for Outstanding Bar. Miami New Times' Top 50 Bars 2026 is the local cross-check.

Occasion chips for Miami are editorial assignments, by category and price. Booking platforms are listed as best known at time of printing; the Resy app is the source of truth for the Amex credit. Joe's Stone Crab is seasonal — mid-October to May.
